

Hitting the road...

Posted by OldInjun - 2015/07/20 09:22

I leave today for the POCI Convention in Louisville, KY. The 2+2 will be entered in stock class judging. A week later I return to DE for 3 days to switch out cars - trailering the '63 Cat to the Pontiac Nat's for some racing. Life is good.

If you're at either event, please look me up to say "Hello".

I am starting to pack tonight for Norwalk {at the age where you have to start early}. Looking forward to seeing all my 2+2 buds.
