

Looking for a 2+2 convertible...'66 preferably!

Posted by JME37 - 2015/07/29 10:46

Hi Guys - I imagine this board is a little more read than the classified section, so just in case I wanted to post my search here! I am obviously new on the site. I came on because I'm searching for a '66 convertible 2+2, preferably automatic (wife's preference!) :)

We're located in Atlanta.

Thanks for any help you could lend in the search!

John

How about some details :

options

power train

asking price?
