

Shirts & Hats?

Posted by OldInjun - 2011/03/11 17:10

Car season is about to begin, and I'm thinking about offering T-shirts, Polo shirts & hats with the 2+2 Registry logo so you can dress in style. I need to gauge interest to determine how reasonably I can have them produced, and an approximated price.

Please post here or email me to let me know how many you might like.

Thanks,

Jack
