

POCI Convention, St. Charles, IL

Posted by OldInjun - 2012/07/06 18:16

The annual POCI Convention is coming soon, July 17-21. Should be the usual great time for fans of Pontiacs.

If you attend, look for the Registry under the blue canopy on the show field. Always nice to put a face to a user name!

I'll be with my friends Dante (Big Red) and Gary (Kittle).

Who else is going?

Change in plans - my car will be parked inside the MEGA CENTER (MEGCEN), so don't look for the blue canopy. It will be nice to have a/c and no bad weather, but I won't have use of the car all week. Oh well...
