

NON 2+2 REGISTERED

NOT SURE WHY A '67 EXECUTIVE IS REGISTERED

I HOPE IT DOESNT ENCOURAGE OTHERS TO REGISTER NON 2+2'S WHICH MAY CONFUSE THE TRUE NUMBER OF ACTUAL 2+2'S REGISTERED

gotta understand the poor executives dilemma, no club to turn to, the engine under the hood of some were as respectable as the 338 horses originally under your hood....lets wish them well..

ALL GOOD & WELL JOHN, THE POINT IS, I THOUGHT, WAS TO KEEP AN ACCURATE RECORD OF SURVIVING 2+2'S.

Good catch, thanks.

The gentleman registered his Executive, thinking that this was for all Big Pontiacs of that year. I explained to him that it didn't qualify, but would approve his membership on the Registry as a "non-owner", of which we have approximately 20 other individuals. They are either fans of 2+2's or intend to buy one, so I grant them site privileges.

The error was mine - I meant to delete the details on his vehicle before approving his membership, but neglected to do so. It is corrected now.

(BTW, John, your emails keep getting returned. Please send me your new email address.)

great to see a spirit of inclusiveness, if understandably limited, good to see a little action on this site, would be great to hear more down-under news on 2+2s, gatherings, etc.pep up the rather light traffic at this site, I have been to several car shows last month, one coming up (local Baltimore area) this week

:laugh: end. Most folks don't know what a 2+2 is Hey, Todd, how about getting the other two Aussie 2+2 owners to register? We've got one "Kiwi" car, but no others from Australia.

YES JACK I WOULD IF I COULD...THAT WAS SOME YEARS AGO . IVE ASKED FREINDS IN OTHER CLUBS TO KEEP AN EYE OUT FOR ANY THAT MAY POP UP AT ANY OF THE PONTIAC, GM OR ALL AMERICAN CAR SHOWS.

WHAT I CAN DO IS ASK A MATE WHO IS IN THE AUSTRALIAN PONTIAC CLUB TO PUT AN ADD IN THE CLUBS MAG ASKING THEM TO REGISTER.....& WE WILL SEE IF YOU GET A RESPONSE.
