Pontiac'ers -

For those who don't know him, Mike Nixon is a widely known Pontiac guy, POCI Board member, moderator and frequent contributor on the Performance Years' forum. As Tech Advisor Coordinator for POCI, he has given generously of his time and knowledge when members had problems with their cars. Mike was just diagnosed with terminal colon cancer. He is handling it well, but has expressed concern for the financial challenges to be faced by his wife and 3 young sons.

If you want further details, go to <http://forums.performanceyears.com/forums/showthread.php?t=749529>.

Smoke Signals editor Don Keefe is spearheading a fundraising effort to benefit Mike's family. If you care to donate, send checks to:
